

People Watching

Sitting in my chair
Watching people go by
What absolute bliss

The things I see and hear
They open up worlds of possibility

A snippet of conversation
A laugh
An affectionate embrace
An angry snap
A yawn
A sob

Such a range of expressions
From so many people

Human beings
They are fascinating creatures
Observing them is a privilege

In a coffee shop
At a bus stop
In any public place
When humans interact with each other
Anything can happen

Watching human life
It's a wonderful pastime
